Re: Yamaha GP1200
comments ??? I

recently took out my 1998 GP1200 and was running for about 20 minutes before all of a sudden I took a nasty spill doing about 45
mph and almost went over the front of the waverunner. But once I got back on everytime
I would reach speeds of 40 mph+ the
waverunner would lean
a lot to the left.

Re: 2002 Yamaha
GP1200R .vs 1999
Seadoo XP I own both
and agree with brian_gp1200r. If your willing to spend a few bucks on the gpr then
the ppk, 13-19
impeller, intake grate,
rideplate & jet works
mod will make a huge difference in the low
end acceleration.
