Harbor Trinity Church | Discussion Questions

I believe that having ice breakers in the beginning of a small group meeting will often help the discussion and prayer time to be something that everyone will join in and be engaged with. A good ice breaker will get people talking and many times laughing and ultimately bonding with the other group members.

In a Bible study small group - cell group, care group, home group, or whatever you call it, icebreaker questions are great for helping everyone get to know one another. They reveal common grounds which serve as launch pads for interaction during the informal times of the group. In addition, if well chosen, the questions can also act as a prelude to the Bible study itself.
