Analysis -

eNotes.com

America's Constitution is a lovingly detailed, clause-by-clause exegesis of each of the Constitution's provisions. Amar marries an at times densely legalistic analysis of these provisions to an overarching theoretical argument.

Biography Akhil

Akhil Amar has written the definitive textual analysis of the Constitution. His arguments are clear and incisive, and his copious notes, both within the text itself and in end notes at the rear of the book, provide a wealth of excellent source material for further research.
