Ballistic (Gray Man, #3) by Mark Greaney

The biggest development in the story arc in this edition of the Gray Man novels is that Gentry goes all in to protect and defend the wife of his late friend. He will ultimately come to be known as the deadly operative with a strict moral code - and this novel highlights that this is a man with a heart as well as a deadly warrior.

Ballistic is without a doubt the best Gray Man novel so far. The story was far more engaging than past stories with a lot of new characters who were all interesting to read about and vastly different from the one-dimensional characters from earlier novels.

Ballistic is novel #3 in the 5 novel series. I strongly recommend all books in the Gray Man series. Back Blast, the February 2016 release, is in my opinion the best thriller released this year. Narration of all 5 novels is by Jay Snyder who is superb.
