TEACHING BELOVED STUDY QUESTIONS PART ONE CHAPTER 1 1. Elie Wiesel has said that nothing compares to the Holocaust from World War II and has rejected any comparisons. In her dedication, Toni Morrison is drawing a clear parallel to the Holocaust. Is this a valid comparison? If so, why? If not, why not?

TEACHING BELOVED STUDY QUESTIONS PART ONE CHAPTER 1

First, we are dust. We are here a moment, limited temporally and limited physically. Depressing as that sounds this is only a partial picture. The second truth about humanity is that we are beloved by God. These truths held together guide our self understanding and the way we ought to approach God.
