Benny's Bed and Biscuits shared an episode of Try Not to Laugh. October 4 · While pet ownership (of any living animal) isn't something to be taken lightly, or on a whim, this is still an absolutely adorable video <3 and just because an animal is "gifted" doesn't always mean that a lot of planning, research, and preparation didn't go into it!

Southern Benny - Menu - Noble Crust - St. Petersburg*

The food is what really lured us in. We shared the biscuit Benny and the French toast. Both were perfectly prepared and wonderful on the palate. The biscuit was still crispy on the edges, the egg poached beautifully runny and the hollandaise just right in terms of texture and that bit of tart flavor absent in lesser sauces! The French toast is cut into strips before being cooked which means you get that awesome crunchy edge in a way higher ratio than most preparations.

The classic pancakes were nice and fluffy, you can't go wrong with those. The fried chicken and biscuit was also tasty with the sweet flavor of anise coming through in the gravy but not overpowering. As for the southern Benny, it was a delicious twist on a classic Eggs Benedict, especially with the layer of fried green tomato. It added just a little crunch and tang to the perfectly poached egg and hollandaise sauce, transforming what is normally standard fare at other brunch spots into a ...
