Coinage in the Roman Economy, 300 B.C. to A.D. 700 by ...

This chapter presents Roman coinage as a distinctive type of communication that developed in the centuries preceding the empire's fall in the West and the loss of Egypt and Syria to the Moslem caliphs in the East. During this period, the Romans minted standardized images in the hundreds of thousands, even millions, a massive output that transformed marketplaces, and with them the economy of the empire.
