A Century of Humour by P.G. Wodehouse - Goodreads

P.G. Wodehouse wrote with such a dry enjoyment of life's ridiculousness, and with the funniest turns of phrase, that he is a go-to whenever I need an injection of humor. It is too bad that the English took WWII so seriously that they couldn't see his attempts to lighten it up for even a moment as patriotic.

Linguistic humor, Wodehouse

Wodehouse was a master of verbal hyperbole as way to draw out laughs and highlight the ridiculous. One example from the story comes from Lord Emsworth's distress at having a second son, followed by...
