Jesus, our friend, spent time with sinners, not to join their sinful ways but to present them the good news that forgiveness was available. Many sinners were transformed by His words of life—Zacchaeus being a prime example (Luke 19:1–10). When Jesus' enemies called Him a "friend of sinners," they meant it as an insult.

Jesus, friend of sinners, we have strayed so far away. We cut down people in Your name. But the sword was never ours to swing Jesus, friend of sinners, the truth's become so hard to see. The world is on their way to You, But they're tripping over me. Always looking around but never looking up. I'm so double-minded.

Jesus, the Friend of Sinners - Grace to You

Jesus knew what they thought, knew what they were whispering to each other, knew how much they disdained this woman and her extravagant display of love. He knew and he didn't care what they thought. Jesus wasn't ashamed to be a "friend of sinners." Are we? Lord Jesus, if you were not the "friend of sinners," we could not be saved.

Was Jesus a Friend of Sinners? - Truth According to Scripture

Jesus said, "I can't help people who don't know they're sinners." ...Jesus met with sinners because they were the only ones that knew they needed a friend: and He was a friend to sinners. In Matthew 11, you remember this, verse 28, "Come unto Me all ye that labor and are heavy laden."

Again, Jesus clearly tells us who His friends are in John 15:14, "You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. Is this not the very antitheses of the claim, "Jesus is a friend of sinners"? He says, in essence, you are not my friends if you are sinners, i.e., those who do not do what I command them.

What does it mean that Jesus is a friend of sinners ...

Jesus was a friend of sinners not because he winked at sin, ignored sin, or enjoyed light-hearted revelry with those engaged in immorality. Jesus was a friend of sinners in that he came to save sinners and was very pleased to welcome sinners who were open to the gospel, sorry for their sins, and on their way to putting their faith in Him.

Why is Jesus hanging out with sinners and tax collectors? Because He is the great physician who has come to bring a deeper healing. This is important, friends, Jesus is not hanging out with tax collectors and sinners as a way of endorsing or approving of their lifestyle anymore than a doctor associating with the sick is intent on leaving them in their sickness.

Question: "What is the significance of Jesus eating with sinners?" Answer: Soon after calling Matthew to follow Him, Jesus ate a meal with "many tax collectors and sinners" in Matthew's house (Mark 2:15). Matthew had been a tax collector, and these "sinners" were his friends and acquaintances who were now spending time with Jesus.

Jesus was called a friend of sinners by the Pharisees (Matthew 9:11; 11:16–19). They meant it as an assault on His reputation. The Pharisees, from their own sense of self-righteousness and superiority, kept their distance from "tax collectors and sinners" (a despised group), whereas Jesus conversed with and even dined with them (Luke 19:5–7).
