From Heaven Lake: Travels Through Sinkiang and Tibet ...

Vikram Seth's "From Heaven Lake: travels in Sinkiang and Tibet" is an unusual travel book. Steering clear of all Lonely Planet Guides and regular travel routes, Seth manages to sketch a picture of China, Tibet, and Nepal from a hungry (quite literally) student traveller's perspective. He was at that time a student at the Nanjing University.

Vikram Seth had been a student in China, so his goal was to see some of the less visited parts of the country and to exit, eventually, to India to be reunited, after years in college, with his family. He did have some language without which, given the twists and turns bureaucracy forced, he would surely not have achieved his goal.
