Life Lessons From Literature - Hudson Hates School

In Hudson Hates School creativity is Hudson's forte but sadly, school is something he really hates. He's particularly dreading it on Friday because that's spelling test day and Hudson hasn't learned his spellings. Not because he didn't try or because he's stupid; Hudson is dyslexic, though nobody knows this yet.

Hudson hates school, especially spelling tests. He struggles with them and has convinced himself he is 'stupid'. His classmates laugh at him and taunt him for not being able to spell, and his teacher keeps him in at break time for extra practice. After school one day, he tearfully tells his mum he is 'never going back to school'.
