The Real Memoirs Of A Geisha: The Life Of Mineko Iwasaki

Your memoir is not an autobiography. The difference is that an autobiography spans your entire life, and a memoir focuses on one particular moment or series of moments around a theme. You want your readers to walk away knowing you, and that one experience, on a much deeper level. Perhaps you are familiar with Angela's Ashes by Frank McCourt. This memoir focuses on Frank's life as a first-generation immigrant child in Brooklyn.

Just got a review back from the Equestria Daily pre-readers. Oy. Well, I want this story on their site, but it needs a BIG rewrite. As much as my ego hates to hear negative feedback, the rest of my mind gives it a back handed slap and happily takes the constructive criticism .. I think this story has a good core, just an inexperienced execution.

Memoir essays were my gateway into reading full-length memoirs. It was not until I took a college class on creative nonfiction that I realized memoirs were not just autobiographies of people with exciting lives. Anyone with any amount of life experience can write a memoir—no dramatic childhood or odd-defying life...
