This Onkyo ht-r2295 is an excellent receiver for the $199.00 I paid for it on sale. It has good power at roughly 80 to 90 watts per channel at 6ohms into 5.1 all channels driven. Surround modes have excellent clarity, excellent separation between each speaker, and fill my living room with excellent spacious sound.

The Onkyo HT-R2295 is a little bit shorter in height than the TX-NR525 but the button and port arrangement on the front is similar. Despite the low number of HDMI ports, there are still plenty of input selector buttons. You can directly switch to AM or FM radio or access the Internet or playback the contents of a USB drive.
