The Dispossessed tells the story of its protagonist Shevek's journey from his home on a desolate, isolated moon to the abundant planet around which his society revolves. Shevek is an Odinian physicist from the planet of Urras, a socialist planet without a central government that follows the teachings of the revolutionary Odo.

you are the dispossessed. When Churches mean a way of life, as Christians proudly claim, And when hypocrisy is scorned and hate is counted shame, Then only shall intolerance die and old injustice cease, And white and dark as brothers find equality and peace. But oh, so long the wait has been, so slow the justice due, Courage decays for want of ...

Within the timeline of Le Guin's celebrated series the Hainish Cycle, The Dispossessed is chronologically the first volume. For this unique illustrated edition, artist David Lupton worked closely with the author's son, Theo Downes-Le Guin, to recreate the twin worlds of Le Guin's imagination, Urras and Anarres, and her revolutionary scientist, Shevek, while the endpapers feature maps of the two planets.

The Dispossessed, famous for being Ken Livingstone's favourite science fiction novel, was the book in which she told us of Shevek, the ansible's inventor, and the ironies of his career. Shevek is a loyal citizen of a poor anarchist world, Anarres, which finds frills like research hard to afford; he travels to the neighbouring world of Urras, to find that unbridled capitalism is not much fun either.
