In The Politics of Miscalculation in the Middle East, Richard Parker examines political/military miscalculations that led to, or attended, three great Middle Eastern crises of the past quarter century. These are the 1967 Arab-Israeli war, the 1968-1970 Egyptian-Israeli war of attrition, and the abortive U.S.-brokered May 17, 1983 withdrawal agreement that followed Israel's June 1982 invasion of Lebanon.

Former U. S. diplomat Richard B. Parker presents three detailed studies of policy failures that he believes were precipitated by miscalculations on the part of diplomats and of government and military leaders in one or more Middle Eastern countries, the United States, and the former USSR. They are the Soviet-Egyptian miscalculation leading to the June 1967 war between Israel and the Arab states, the U. S.-Israeli miscalculation leading to Soviet military intervention in Egypt in 1970, and the U.
